The Classic City Band is extremely pleased at having been invited to participate in the annual Holiday Season activities at the University of Georgia Botanical Garden. No more beautiful locale for a Christmas Concert can be found in the Athens/Clarke County Area.

We wish to express our appreciation to the personnel of the Botanical Garden for their cooperation and the many courtesies they have extended to us. Without their support and help, this concert would never have been.

The Band is also happy at being able to have as its guests and featured performers of the concert, Esprit de Chord, a male quartet composed of: Chris Clark, Jim Glenn, Chuck Mason, and Duane Erickson. We want to thank them for their contribution in making today's concert a success.

As most of you know, the members of the Classic City Band derive a great deal of satisfaction from performing in the organization. We hope that you have enjoyed this afternoon's concert as much as we have enjoyed bringing it to you. If you have, we hope to see you at future concerts and appearances of the Band.

In the meantime, the entire Band extends Seasons Greetings to each of you, with the hope and expectation that the New Year will bring the fulfillment of all of your wishes and desires.
